

Remembrance Day

14th November

Remembering all those killed, injured and still suffering from warfare will be held on Sunday Nov. 14th at the Historic All Saints Church

All are welcome to attend, including all our uniformed organisations.

There will be a march from the triangle to the Church lych gate, where we will all assemble by 10.45am for the laying of wreaths and minute's silence. The service will start at 11am.

This year we are also hoping that a local lad – Billy (Royal Engineers) – will be able to take some part in the service. He has returned from Afghanistan recently and finds it reassuring to talk of his experiences, and should prove inspiring to us all.

Please come if you can to show our ongoing support and prayers for the forces and all those who care for them, including the RBL.
